Newsletter for Young Adults

Spring edition

Welcome to the Spring edition of our newsletter.

A lot has happened since the last edition including new furniture, which has made its way into the Young Adult section at Oakham Library. There are now two new sofas, a comfy chair and a table for you to enjoy next time you visit.

The new noticeboard is now completely up and running, we are short of book reviews by all you avid readers out there – so let us know what you think of the latest book you've read.

New Stock

There is loads of new stock arriving on the shelves soon – both fiction (stories) and non-fiction (fact books) – for you to take out. There are also new revision guides for GCSE arriving too. If you are studying a subject you don't see on the shelf, let us know.

New fiction!

Bell, Julia – Dirty work [age 15+]

O'Connell, Tyne – Dumping princes

Golding, Julia – Secret of the sirens

Burgess, Melvin – Blood song [age 15+]

Plus many other shiny new titles in stock

We are short of reader reviews – if you would like to review a book for us, just write it up and send it in!

What I'm reading...

The Gift

By Alison Croggon

The Plot.

Maerad is a slave in a desperate and unforgiving settlement, taken there as a child when her family is destroyed in war. She is unaware that she possesses a powerful gift, a gift that marks her as a member of the School of Pellinor. It is only when she is discovered by Cadvan, one of the great Bards of Lirigon, that her true heritage and extraordinary destiny unfolds. Now she and her teacher, Cadvan, must survive a punishing and uncertain journey through a time and place where the dark forces they battle with stem from the deepest recesses of other-worldly terror.

The Opinion.

This is an epic (and a trilogy) inspired, like many others, by Tolkien – but still an original work. Full of vivid imagery and atmosphere. This is a beautifully described and a very powerful piece of fantasy fiction – a future classic.

The Score:

My first ever 5 stars!!
