4. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Background and context

Neighbourhood Planning was introduced by the Localism Act 2011. The Neighbourhood Planning (General) Regulations 2012 (as amended 2015) require Rutland County Council to undertake certain provisions. In addition the Council is also required to provide technical advice and support.

This agreement sets out how the Council will meet its statutory obligations and the level of assistance it will offer to parish councils.

Once an application for a neighbourhood area has been submitted to Rutland County Council a minimum 4 week consultation period will be undertaken via the Council's website.

Rutland County Council will notify the parish council and ward member(s) of this consultation period.

Regulation references refer to the Neighbourhood Planning (General) Regulations 2012 (as amended 2015).

The obligations for Rutland County Council
