Adoption Statement

Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004
Town and Country Planning (Local Planning) (England) Regulations 2012
Rutland Local Plan
Site Allocations and Policies Development Plan Document

Notice is hereby given under Regulations 26 and 35 of the Town and Country Planning (Local Planning) (England) Regulations 2012 that Rutland County Council adopted the Site Allocations and Policies Development Plan Document (DPD) on 13 October 2014.

The Site Allocations and Policies DPD allocates sites for development and sets out policies for determining planning applications. It applies to the whole of the administrative area of Rutland County Council.

The adopted DPD incorporates all the main modifications recommended in the Inspector's Report dated 27 August 2014 on the Examination of the Site Allocations and Policies DPD. The Inspector's Report can be viewed at the locations listed below and on the Council's website www.rutland.gov.uk/siteallocations.

Any person aggrieved by the Site Allocations and Policies DPD may make an application to the High Court under Section 113 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 on the grounds that:

- a) the document is not within the appropriate power;
- b) a procedural requirement has not been complied with.

Any such application must be made not later than the end of the period of six weeks starting from the date of the adoption of the Site Allocations and Policies DPD on 13 October 2014.

Copies of the adopted DPD, the adoption statement, the sustainability appraisal report and the Inspector's Report are available for inspection on the Council's website www.rutland.gov.uk/siteallocations and at the following locations:
