ATTENDING COUNCIL MEETINGS

You are welcome to attend all meetings of the Council, Cabinet, Scrutiny Panels and Committees which take place at the Council Offices, Catmose, Oakham, Rutland.

Meetings are usually held in the Council Chamber and the public gallery is clearly signed and fully accessible. Occasionally, if confidential or exempt information is to be considered, you might be asked to leave the meeting.

A programme of meetings is available at the Council Offices, on our web-site: www.rutland.gov.uk or on request from Corporate Support (details are on the front of this leaflet).

You can inspect agendas, reports and the Cabinet's Forward Plan of Key Decisions to find out when a particular topic which you might be interested in will be discussed by councillors and consider whether to express your views on the matter. If you wish to make your views known, there are a number of options open to you including contacting your Ward Councillor(s).

YOUR LOCAL COUNCILLOR(S)

Your local councillor(s) will always be happy to hear your views on any issue which affects your local area or Rutland as a whole. You can contact your local councillor(s) prior to any meeting and ask him/her to highlight your views at the meeting.

Details of your local councillor(s) can be found on the Council's web-site www.rutland.gov.uk or by telephoning Corporate Support using the details on the front of this leaflet.
