FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – 1265/17

Dear Sir/Madam

Your request for information has now been considered and the information requested is provided below.

Request:

This is a FOI request under the Freedom Of Information Act.

How many fines has your local authority levied on letting agents for breaches of the Consumer Rights Act 2015 since it came into force?

Response:

Since the Consumer Rights Act 2015 came into force, Rutland County Council has levied no fines on letting agents for breaches of this legislation.

You are free to use any documents supplied for your own use, including for non-commercial research purposes. The documents may also be used for news reporting. However, any other type of re-use, for example by publishing the documents or issuing copies to the public will require the permission of the copyright owner, where copyright exists. Such a request would be considered separately in accordance with the relevant Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005 and is not automatic. Therefore, no permission is implied in the re-use of this information, until such a request to re-use it has been made and agreed, subject to any appropriate conditions. Any request to re-use the information should be made to me at the address below.
