

ABOUT PASS PLUS

Pass Plus is made up of six practical modules over at least 6 hours which will include:

- * Driving in towns and cities
- * Driving on rural roads
- * Dual carriageways
- * Driving in all weathers
- * Driving at night
- * Motorways

You will not have to take a test but will be continually assessed by the Driving Instructor. Upon completion you will receive a "Certificate of Completion" which could give you discount off car insurance. For more information check the web site, <https://www.gov.uk/pass-plus/car-insurance-discounts>

Pass Plus usually costs £150 but Rutland County Council are subsidising the scheme by 50% for young drivers under 25 who are Rutland residents.

All applicants must have a home address in Rutland (proof may be required of age and/or residency).
