Request / Response:

I am writing to request information on the following:

1. The total allocated spending from Rutland County Council on weight management programmes

   Answer: Please see responses to Question 2.

2. The breakdown of allocation of spending across:

   a. Tier 1

      Answer: It is unclear if you are asking for this in relation to adults and or children. Rutland County Council have a Fun Food and Families offer for those families whose children were identified as overweight or very overweight. The budget for this is £4,900. And it is provided by Active Rutland, Rutland County Council.

         Rutland Community Wellbeing Service provides information, advice and signposting for lifestyle issues including weight management. It is not possible to separate out this cost.

   b. Tier 2

      Answer: Rutland County Council has no separate Tier 2 weight management commissioned service. However our Exercise on Referral programme includes support for those who wish to lose weight. This cannot be separated from the Exercise on Referral programme costs.
