

Castle Development Manager
Places Directorate
Full Time, Fixed term until October 2020
Scale SO1, Salary £26,470 to £28,221
(pay award pending in April 2019)

Who we are... Rutland County Council is the smallest Unitary Authority in England, but just because we are a small team does not mean we cannot make a big difference, multum-in parvo is our motto! Rutland offers fantastic opportunities to make a real difference to the lives of residents in our local community – we really are one of the best places to live, learn, work, play and visit. This is your chance to become part of an amazing team, delivering great services throughout the county.

Who you are... Enthusiastic, motivated and with strong commercial experience, you will be full of ideas of how to make one of Rutland's iconic places self-funding. You will be leading the development of the visitor offer, supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund, expanding the use of the site for income generating events, and managing our retail operations. With your excellent communication and marketing skills you will be able to increase the profile of our Castle locally, regionally and nationally.

What we need from you... Educated to degree level and with significant experience in business management, you will be able to juggle managing day to day activities and team priorities alongside providing reports to a variety of audiences on your progress towards the successful delivery of the business plan. Knowledge of heritage matters and current approaches to managing historic sites would be highly desirable.

The successful applicant for this post will be subject to an enhanced check by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS).

What we offer in return... Work that makes a difference to people's lives within this beautiful county, in addition to structured salary reviews, local government pension scheme, discounted access to 'Active Rutland' keep fit activities and Flexi-Time to name just a few!

We act as 'One Council' in all we do, with each of us working together in the most effective way to meet the needs of our customers every day – if you share this ethos then we really want to hear from you...
