2. The internet address where the child serious case review publications are uploaded.

Answer:
Not Applicable

3. How long the authority keeps child serious case reviews uploaded before taking them off line and requiring people to ask for the publication on request.

Answer:
Not Applicable

4. The number of downloads and requests for the publication of each child serious case review the authority has received.

Answer:
Not Applicable

You are free to use any documents supplied for your own use, including for non-commercial research purposes. The documents may also be used for news reporting. However, any other type of re-use, for example by publishing the documents or issuing copies to the public will require the permission of the copyright owner, where copyright exists. Such a request would be considered separately in accordance with the relevant
Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005 and is not automatic. Therefore, no permission is implied in the re-use of this information, until such a request to re-use it has been made and agreed, subject to any appropriate conditions. Any request to re-use the information should be made to me at the address below.
