FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – 329/19

Dear Sir/Madam

Your request for information has now been considered and the information requested is provided below.

Request & Response:

I would like to be provided with the following information:

1) The total number of adult serious case reviews undertaken for each year since 2006. If these figures are not available, please provide the number of adult serious case reviews for each year for which you have figures.

Answer: 0

2) The internet address where the adult serious case review publications are uploaded.

Answer: N/A as we have 0 reviews undertaken since 2006 but we are aware that the Care Act 2014 says that we should publish learning from reviews (in annual report and other places like Safeguarding Matters which is accessed via the lrsb.org.uk website)

3) How long the authority keeps adult serious case reviews uploaded before taking them off line and requiring people to ask for the publication on request.

Answer: If we were to publish it would go on the website for a year

4) The number of downloads and requests for the publication of each adult serious case review the authority has received.

Answer: 0

You are free to use any documents supplied for your own use, including for non-commercial research purposes. The documents may also be used for news reporting. However, any other type of re-use, for example by publishing the documents or issuing copies to the public will require the permission of the copyright owner, where copyright exists. Such a request would be considered separately in accordance with the relevant Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005 and is not automatic. Therefore, no permission is implied in the re-use of this information, until such a request to re-use it has been made and agreed, subject to any appropriate conditions. Any request to re-use the information should be made to me at the address below.
