Dear Sir/Madam

Your request for information has now been considered and the information requested is provided below.

Request:
I am writing to ask for the details of the dog/owner which has received a control order following an incident on the Cottesmore playing field as mentioned in your last meeting. I live in the village myself, with my own dogs so want to be aware of any dog which could pose a threat to my own dogs.

Response:
In accordance with the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 this message acts as a Refusal Notice.

For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), the Council is relying on Section 13 of the Act, to the extent that the environmental information constitutes to the personal data of the requester, then it is exempt from disclosure. This is an absolute exemption, and there is no duty to confirm or deny whether the information is held. Instead, the public authority should deal with the request as a subject access request under the DPA.

You are free to use any documents supplied for your own use, including for non-commercial research purposes. The documents may also be used for news reporting. However, any other type of re-use, for example by publishing the documents or issuing copies to the public will require the permission of the copyright owner, where copyright exists. Such a request would be considered separately in accordance with the relevant Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005 and is not automatic. Therefore, no permission is implied in the re-use of this information, until such a request to re-use it has been made and agreed, subject to any appropriate conditions. Any request to re-use the information should be made to me at the address below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please contact the Head of Corporate Governance, Rutland County Council, Catmose, Oakham, Rutland LE15 6HP.
